Letter of your kind to - Mrs. J. H. H. H. H.

Dear Tommy -
 This is the first time
 I have been in New York
 since I came to America
 We begin our "Education for Democracy"

We leave after four years of solid training and guidance, having had every opportunity to learn how to become contented, useful, democratic citizens of America.

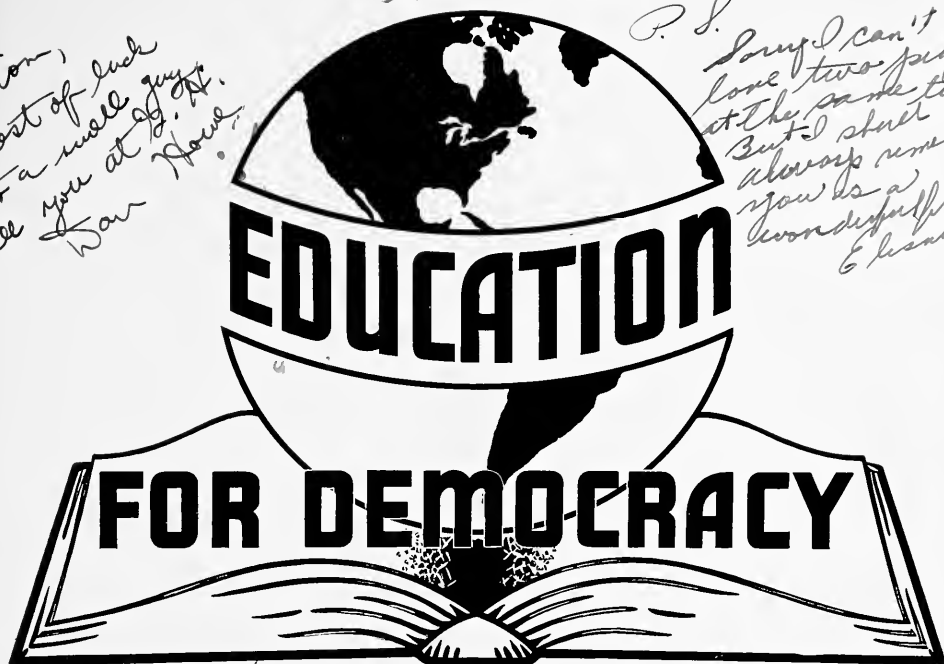

Dear Tom,
 Best of Luck to a sweet kid Load of Luck and happiness in the future.

 you as a wonderful friend
 Elisabeth

Hi you Tom
 feeling much better. That's right. The everyone else has said but I just think it and you take it for granted. Be a good boy.

In picture and in printed word we depict our beloved Catholic Central whose spiritual, intellectual and social knowledge gives us the light to perceive our duties as Catholic citizens in a future world.

Since reconstruction can come only through education, we humbly feel that we who have been educated for democracy should now be prepared to help christianize those whom we contact in our daily lives.

Dear Tom,

It's the fact few years that I've known you, we've got along fairly well together. You deserve all the luck in the world. Take it easy. (with love)

Your "old" classmate and ———,
 Carl Sanders

To live on is life's dominant desire, but we were taught that we have more than life, more than intelligence and free will; we have a soul glowing with life that fears not death of the body.
 It is a life that shines with supernatural beauty, stamped with the Image of our Creator.

We have been educated to live as Christians, to follow the impulse of grace, to increase in our hearts love toward God and our neighbor. And this is, we believe, Education for Democracy.

Westie —
 It's been swell knowing you. Glad to be a friend of yours. See you around sometime. Maybe at Phil Ester's house. (John) when we are going to be christened.
 when it's time of age, Kate get christened

DEDICATION

At length the class of 1946 ventures from school life into life's school. It is to you, the loyal and devoted alumni that we look for guidance. Your exemplary lives have influenced us to the extent that we now desire to conduct ourselves in a manner that Catholic Central may, in recognition of a duty well done, add our names to those whom she has educated for democracy.

To you, the alumni of forty years, we devotedly dedicate our Yearbook, ever mindful of the strong bond which

Dear Tom,
 You a "fuddy" little man in grade school, who is now slender, tender & tall!
 Ray

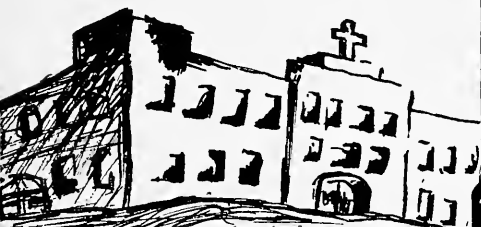

unites us: namely, our great love for Catholic Central. Our attention has been directed to your cultural attainments, to the important positions you have merited in the world, and in particular to your manifestation of loyalty to God and country. You have thus charted for us a course which we shall be eager to follow.

God grant that now we may take our place beside you in a world recently restored to peace, that together we may strive to attain the ideals of our beloved democracy.

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

To Catholic Central Graduates of 1946:

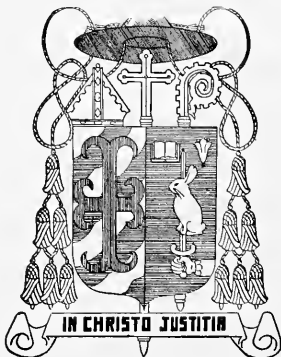

I am delighted to take this opportunity to send you my blessing and congratulations. You are going out of Catholic Central this year just as the young men and women have been going out of it since 1907. All in all, your problems will be no different from theirs. Some of theirs were tougher than yours, some of yours will be tougher than theirs. But balancing your problems with theirs, your life struggle will be substantially the same as theirs was.

Catholic Central gave them the same standards to live by and even to die by that it has given you. It put into their souls the same intellectual and moral weapons that it has put into yours.

The overwhelming number of Catholic Central graduates have done exceedingly well with what Catholic Central gave them. Catholic Central is proud of them. It wants to be and is sure that it will be proud of you.

God grant you the fullest measure of the only kind of happiness that can satisfy, being happy in the way He wants you to be happy.

Faithfully in Christ

Our Annual Retreat

Among the many and varied spiritual opportunities offered to Catholic Central students, the annual Retreat holds first place in the hearts and minds of both faculty and pupils. Three days of meditation upon the great truths of our holy Religion; conferences on vocations, and concentration on the duties of our state in life serve to strengthen the spiritual structure of all who are enrolled under the banner of C. C.

The retreat of 1946 was our last one. Who of us can ever forget the zeal and sincerity manifested by the rugged and earnest Father McCaffery, O. P., who warned us that no matter how many years may be ahead of us, "Some day you are going Home."

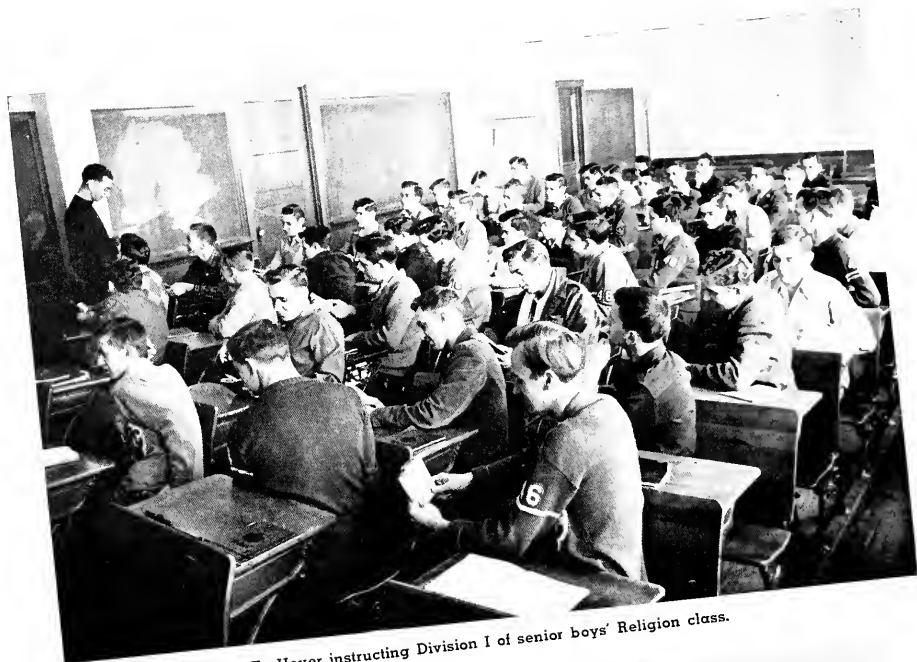

On the morning of January 25, the closing day of the Retreat, 1400 Catholic Central students received Holy Communion in a body. In the afternoon the Blessed Sacrament was exposed during Holy Hour in which the students participated with hymns and prayers. Benediction by the Rev. William Murphy was the final retreat ceremony. The 1946 Retreat concluded with the renewal of Baptismal vows and the impressive Papal blessing by the Rev. McCaffery.

Rev. Father Murphy officiates at Benediction.

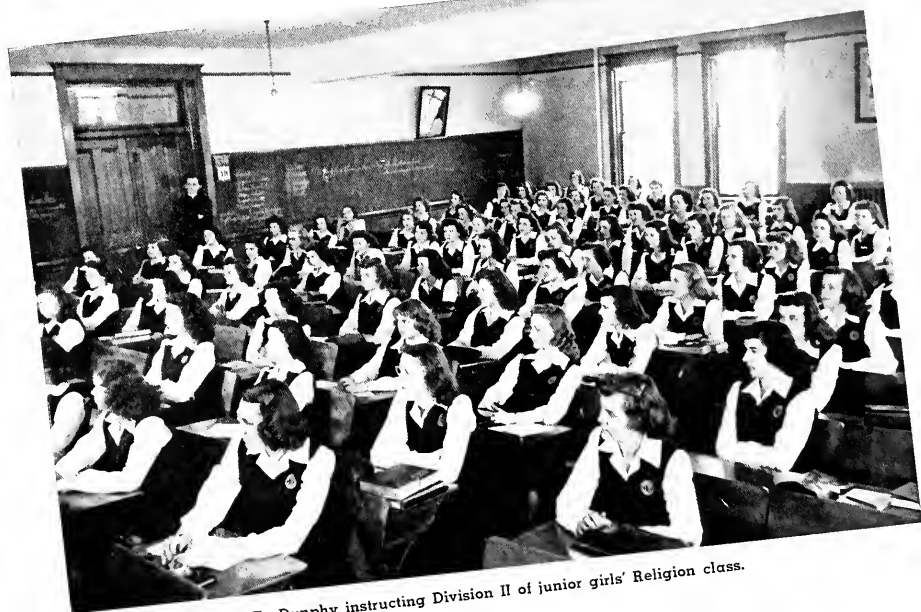

Rev. Father Kolenic assists in distributing Holy Communion.

Fr. Hoyer instructing Division I of senior boys' Religion class.

Fr. Dunphy instructing Division II of junior girls' Religion class.

The Seniors dedicated their panel discussion, open forum, and symposium on vocations to St. Joseph.

At the close of a fervent Novena, Rosemary Connor, co-editor of the Spires together with Virginia Majewski and Therese Podhajski dedicated the work of the annual to Mary Immaculate on December 8.

Previous to the Christmas holidays, seniors made a novena of liturgical prayers before Cribbs erected in the Home Rooms.

During the Christmas season the generous offerings of food for the poor and the aged testified the charity of Catholic Central students.

Dear Tommy,
I want to wish you all the luck and happiness in the future.
Good luck to you and I hope I will see you both often after graduation and the year to come! We really had some swell times, didn't we? Remember the chicken dinner at your girl's house? More fun!
Luck always,
Marge Powell.

CLASS OFFICERS CONFER WITH PRINCIPAL

Left to right, Standing: Casimir Polkowski, treasurer; Rev. William J. Murphy, principal.
Seated: Rosemary Vogt, secretary; Gerald Houseman, president; Nancy Moriarty, vice-president.

CLASS RESUMÉ

Always Nancy

"But what minutes! Count them by sensation and not by calendars and each moment is a day, and the race a life."

The sun is rising beyond the distant hills; uncertainty shades the dawn as we advance into the light. We are Freshmen jostling in a crowd of unfamiliar faces, experiencing the friendships of many new acquaintances and becoming only partially aware of the significance of our first retreat.

The fore-noon becomes radiant in the light of our ambition. As Sophomores we begin to sense our purpose. We greet our new spiritual leader, the Most Reverend Bishop Haas, with sincere enthusiasm. Catholic Central reaches a new goal in attendance; we now number eleven hundred and fifty. The sun high in the heavens announces that midday has descended.

In the glory of our noon-tide we dream the plans of the future. With pardonable pride we Juniors announce that the greatest number of winners in the Bishop's High School Fund Essay Contest are from our ranks. We promote our first social event the "J-Hop." Our love and respect for Catholic Central has taken root.

Reluctantly we view the evening shadows descending upon our firm society of nearly three hundred members. Now we are aiming for the future, but so little time remains to plan and work. Father William Murphy returns as the self-sacrificing principal. After promoting a unique and vigorous campaign the clamoring seniors choose: president, Gerald Houseman; vice-president, Nancy Moriarty; secretary, Rosemary Vogt; and treasurer, Casimir Polkowski. Gala Night festivities, and the two all-Senior parties are treasures of remembrance. We are proud of our All-State Sportsmen, Gerry McGovern and Casey Polkowski. The world is again at peace, synonymous with the peace of soul we experience after our annual retreat. The shadows deepen and a few stars appear to lend their enchantment to our dances—the Homecoming, Sno-Shuffle, and Spring Swing.

Ordinarily just another day would be passing into the realms of eternity, but there has been a radiant sunset bringing with it the promises of a glorious future. As this day ebbs away, we think with consoling remembrance of tasks accomplished. Dimly we see each senior boy and girl cautiously advancing to his particular goal in life. In prayerful thanksgiving for our Catholic education, we offer Almighty God this complete day. Tomorrow, we go forth to test our worth, remembering that we have been educated for democracy.

JUNIOR CLASS RESUMÉ

The class of '47 better known as the "spirited Juniors" represent the largest single group in Catholic Central this year. They have attracted the attention of both faculty and administration, not for the number 375 they represent, but for their loyalty, scholarship and class spirit. Early in October they chose Bob Tietema, president, and Lorraine Nadwodny, vice-president. Richard Gibson was elected treasurer and Celia Lankowski, secretary.

The first Junior social activity, a school mixer in January, was a marked success. The roller-skating party in February, and the annual J-Hop in May were wisely organized by capable leaders. Both events were well patronized.

On the athletic program the Juniors were prominent in football, basketball and track.

Juniors, the Seniors wish you every success in the important roll you are to play next year.

MUSIC GRADUATES

The principal and faculty of Catholic Central are pleased to present three members of the senior class who have completed the high school course in music.

Mary Catherine Brechting will receive her diploma in recognition of seven years' study in piano. Most of her musical education has been under the direction of Sister M. Annette now head of Aquinas College music department.

Five years of study under the guidance of Sister M. Annette and Sister Margaret Ann conclude the high school piano course for Louise Rode and Margaret Pruss. The three young ladies presented their graduation recital for parents and friends in early June. Excellent instruction, arduous study and consistent practice characterized the program that left a surprised audience filled with admiration for a school that can offer to her students the opportunities of a cultural education.

MUSIC

For the common things of everyday
God gave men speech in the common way.
For the deeper things men think and feel
He gave the poet words to reveal.
But for heights and depths no word could reach
He gave MUSIC, the soul's own speech.

SCIENCE

The future doctor of medicine, the nurse, the scientific research worker — if students have a desire for an education in the field of science, they will be thoroughly instructed by professionally-prepared teachers whether the choice be General Science, Biology, Chemistry or Physics.

MATHEMATICS

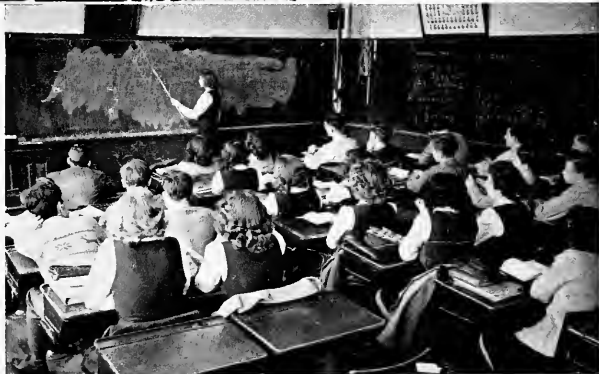

"If a man's wit be wandering, let him study mathematics." Bacon.

Mathematics has ever held a dynamic place in our curriculum. Catholic Central offers a complete course including Algebra I, II and advanced; Plane and Solid Geometry; Trigonometry. There is likewise offered a splendid course in High School Arithmetic. Hence, every serious-minded student has the opportunity to acquire the prerequisites for College Mathematics.

LANGUAGES

The study of the languages is, indeed, the path to culture and higher education. Realizing this, Catholic Central urges her students to study four years of Latin or two years of French. Four years of English is required for graduation.

SOCIAL SCIENCE

As we recall the various scholastic activities beginning with our Freshman days and on through the years to graduation, we realize how competently our teachers presented facts to us in order to strengthen our faith and morals.

Who of us is not grateful for the exceptional, high-grade presentation of material in Civics and Sociology classes? Truly, we say with gratitude that the principles of democracy were thoroughly impressed upon us during our four years of study at Catholic Central.

Preparing students for the secretarial field has always been one of Catholic's strong points. Many a graduate has found himself capable of offering assistance in an office in which bookkeeping, shorthand and typewriting are required for the position.

Physical fitness so conducive to happiness is achieved through a well-regulated program from which no student is exempted unless a physician's order demands it.

Miss Doris Kardes has for many years been the efficient head in the girls' division; Mr. Edward Killoran, who interrupted his work as boys' physical education director to serve in the U. S. Navy, has returned to his post.

Music Representatives of Catholic Central

We cannot imagine Catholic Central without a Band. Seventy members take a justifiable pride in aiming to make our Band second to none in the city. Daily rehearsals under the direction of Mr. Herman Johnson vouch for an excellent performance at the annual Concert.

Gala Night, the Band's yearly social project reached its peak this year. Under the supervision of Sister M. Gervase, the event was an outstanding success. Total profit? You guessed right! $3,000.

Since 1929 Catholic Central's Student Council has offered a fine brand of service to the faculty and students of the school. Sixty boys and girls devote at least one period each day in tending to the wants of teachers and pupils. The members enjoy the rich experience of learning how to be thoughtful, courteous and democratic. Sister M. Damien is sponsor for the boys' group of which Donald Miller is president; Eugene Duba, vice-president; Dan Pobojewski, secretary; Phil Levandoski, treasurer. In the girls' division Sister M. Benedetta directs the group with the support of Margaret Misiewicz, president, and Shirley Peters, vice-president.

*Best of luck!
Serge! Girls chasing women!*

September, 1945, marked the third year of R.O.T.C. activities at Catholic Central. Because most of the members have been in the organization since its inception at C. C. in 1943, high grade efficiency is in evidence. In spite of elimination of sponsors, Company G and Company H are doing creditable work.

Serving on the Regimental Staff for Catholic Central were Cadet Major Orville Kipen and Cadet Major Donald Braun. On the Battalion Staff were Cadet Major Bernard Deschaine and Cadet First Lieutenant Eugene Pluhator.

R. O. T. C.

Company "H"

The officers in Company G were Cadet Captains Donald Kozal and Richard Milligan and Cadet First Lieutenant Ramon Brocker. In Company H, the officers were Cadet Captains William Harring and Eugene Zoe, and Cadet Lieutenants Henry Tazelaar and Thomas Westdorp.

The duties of the Sergeant-instructor this year were very ably handled by Staff Sergeant Joseph A. Czarnowski.

Students, Here's Your Spires

The year was yet in its infancy when Sister M. Irene, Richard Agacinski and Rosemary Connor met to formulate plans for the Yearbook. One week later Reverend Father Murphy, our principal, appointed a staff of sixteen members to assist the co-editors, and from that moment until the mighty task was completed there was evidence of sacrifice and cooperation on the part of every student engaged in the work.

It is on the feast of St. Joseph that we gather to put the finishing lines to our Spires. As we pause to review the various elements that have been woven into its fabric we become conscious of the fact that the entire faculty and student body supported us by prayer, good wishes and encouraging expressions. And for this we say, God bless you, everyone. May your reward be a "Spires" to your liking.

We are grateful, of course, to our adviser, but there are others who deserve a special note of appreciation for their assistance. For financial security we thank our vice-principal, Reverend Father Heyer, who was the "heart and soul" of every project undertaken; the contestants who inspired the students to an "all-time high" sales—1325 copies; Mr. Alvin C. Burkle, our "beacon light" in solving the many intricate problems that confronted us; Sister Mary Casimir and her students for the splendid art productions; Sister M. Edna for generously supervising the typing of our copy; Versluis Studio for the many and excellent pictures they produced; our own John Milhaupt, school photographer, for his untiring patience and excellent work.

Father Murphy, to you we present the Spires of 1946. We hope that you, your faculty, and your student-body will enjoy the reading of it with the same measures of joy that we had in compiling it.

COURTESY CLUB

Courtesy Club Members Exchanging Ideas

Early in the year a large number of senior girls volunteered to be active members in a newly-organized Courtesy Club. Each of the five senior English classes were represented by seven members who planned instructive programs for their respective classes.

Numerous essays, editorials and lines of verse were written on the subject of Courtesy to the end that a marked improvement in thoughtfulness and consideration on the part of the students for their teachers was greatly in evidence.

LITERARY CLUB

To promote a greater interest in study of the Catholic authors several members of the English IV classes formed the "Cardinal Newman Literary Society." Chairmen representing the various groups conducted by-monthly meetings at which time appointed members of the society gave interesting biographical accounts of Catholic men and women who devoted their time and talents to the art of writing.

Cardinal Newman Literary Club Planning a Symposium

MARIAN CLUB

The Marian Club is the outgrowth of a loving devotion to our Blessed Lady during the month of October. The Junior girls of Sister M. Huberta's English classes expressed the desire to foster greater devotion to the Blessed Virgin by means of spreading literature about Her life and by purchasing books dedicated to Her. At the weekly meetings members discuss the virtues of Mary and offer suggestions on how to become more Mary-like. To date, the club has purchased six books.

Left to right, seated: Irene Zyniewicz, Secretary; Lorraine Sheets, Vice-President; Shirley Breas, President.
Standing: Mary Cary, Treasurer.

WRITERS' CLUB

Standing: Joan Cowles, Joan Vandenberg, Margaret Despres, Lenore Zilonis, Rosemary Mead.

The introduction of a Writers' Club was the novel idea of Sister Gertrude Marie, O.P. under whose guidance a group of English III students devote after school time to the practice of creative writing. Bi-monthly meetings afford the opportunity for constructive criticism of contributions. The Club now numbers seventeen.

FRENCH CLUB

The true spirit of France was kept alive throughout the year by the Le Cercle Francais composed of second year French students.

Bi-monthly meetings conducted in French under the supervision of Sister M. Joan were conducive in promoting a greater earnestness in the study of the language. Writing letters and compositions in French and singing French songs and hymns were achievements that compensated diligent French students. Officers of the Club: Johan Norton, president; Thomas Blakely, vice-president; Marianne Emerson, secretary; Mary Reynolds, treasurer.

EUCLIDEAN CLUB

Under the direction of Sister Rose Marie the activities sponsored by the members of the Euclidean Club stimulated interest in Mathematics. Several skits, stressing the importance of Mathematics in a high school course, were presented during the year. Interesting biographical accounts of great mathematicians and report on their achievements produced a wholesome attitude in the advanced classes. The officers of the club were: President, Barbara Bissot; vice-president, Therese Schmitt; secretary, Margaret Pruss; treasurer, Mary Cary.

Senior Members of Euclidean Club

USHERS' CLUB

The Ushers' Club completed its tenth year of service under the capable direction of Sister M. Roberta. Organization, systematic procedure and courtesy were the marked characteristics in evidence whenever this group of twenty-five seniors and juniors functioned at assemblies and services in the Cathedral. Jack Alberts as club president and Richard De Graff, vice-president deserve commendation for their efforts in making the various projects successful.

LIBRARY

Concentration Produces Knowledge

The senior girls, eager to have a better and more interesting library, gladly responded to the "New Books Campaign" as one of the projects for National Catholic Book Week. The total contributions of the five English IV classes made possible the purchase of nine popularly requested books.

The library, under the supervision of Sister Agnes Regina, provided the girls a wide choice of material for reference work. The officers for the year were: Chairman, Mary Cary; secretary, Celestine Zalewski; and treasurer, Emily Troeger.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

Catholic Central's new vocal director, Sister Margaret Ann, O.P. heartily applauded when two hundred forty-five students voluntarily enrolled as members of her Glee Clubs.

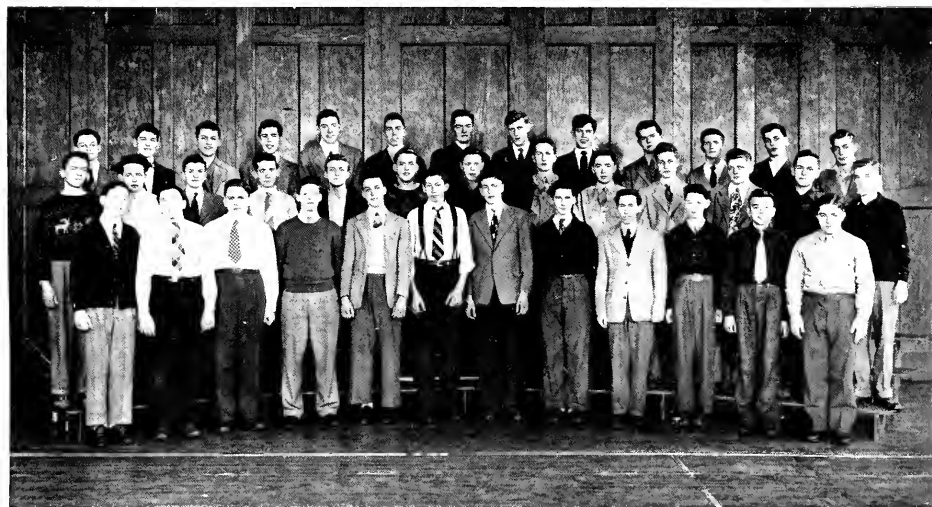

The Girls' Glee Club gave a public exhibition of their first semester's work before the members of St. Andrew P.T.A. on St. Patrick's day. On June tenth, Class night, the combined groups reached the heights of their achievement in the presentation of several choice selections that pleased an audience of two thousand. Sister Anna Marie, O.P. was the director's competent assistant throughout the year.

The democratic spirit is greatly in evidence amongst the members of West Catholic's Mixed Chorus. Not only is there a remarkable love for voice-training, but also a willingness to share with others the joy that comes from efforts exerted in frequent rehearsals. Many of the West Side parishes have already had the rare treat of hearing several choice renditions by the choristers directed by Sister M. Benedette, S.S.N.D.

Officers of this sturdy group were Jim Schultz, president; Lyle Morrison, vice-president; Tom Farrell, treasurer.

In commenting on the spring initiation we pass honors to Mr. Thomas Roach, initiation head; and to Ted Sowle, Jack Young, C. Pobojewski, and Ed Killoran we say a huge "thank you" for your fine work in the field of athletics at Catholic Central.

RECIPE FOR "SOCIAL DELIGHT" *

This "Social Delight"—smooth, mellow, spicy, and easy to take, may easily be the achievement of any high school class which follows this carefully planned recipe. Success in the making of "Social Delight" is due to excellent supervision and accurate measurement of activities. The quality of the finished product can be only as good as the ingredients that go into its making.

Ingredients

Democratic Spirit (Basic ingredient)
Mixers
Homecoming Dance
Roller Skating Party
Gala-Nite

Senior Party
Pep Meetings
Sno-Shuffle
Military Ball
Spring Swing

Thoroughly plan the mixers so as to blend gradually into the Homecoming Dance. Add one Roller Skating Party, one Gala-Nite, and mix in a gay time. Melt good entertainment with the Senior Party and Pep Meetings. Sift in Sno-Shuffle, blended with smooth music and soft lights. Add evenly, one Military Ball and one Spring Swing, sprinkled with pink rose buds and blue forget-me-nots. Lastly, fold into the mixture a Democratic Spirit, blending all ingredients thoroughly.

Serve with excitement and satisfaction.

* This recipe has been tested and approved by the students of Catholic Central High School.

MIXERS

A well planned mixer, with a pinch of democracy, is sure to raise new acquaintances and renew old friendships.

On October 13, 1945, a record crowd gathered in the "oven" (C. C. Gym) for a "hot" time. The chef of the evening was Reverend Father Robert Heyer, who made the event a sensational masterpiece through his skill in the art of fun-making. During intermission, a new version of the "Atchison, Topeka and the Santa Fe", converted to fit our beloved "drag", added sparkle to the evening. After this first evening of fun, all returned home with the certainty that the year would be an amiable one, spent with friends old and new.

Yum, yum! What a super delectable tid-bit!!

On November 21, 1945, all tasted their first sample of swing and sway under the supervision of the class of '46. The Civic Auditorium was the "tasting-kitchen" and the "music-master" was Ray Bush.

The tip-top of the evening arrived when twenty little dolls, all arrayed in different colored gowns, with their escorts were ushered to the stage by Chels d'Head Shirley Wilson and Lyle Morrison. The King, Charles Boggiano, deftly crowned his lovely Queen, Marjorie Didion, who received the symbol of honor with a gracious speech of acceptance.

During intermission Ev Hunt, '29 graduate of Catholic Central, furnished a little variation by displaying his talents on the keys. Dancing 'til 12:30 completed the session.

'Round and 'round she goes—where she falls, nobody knows.

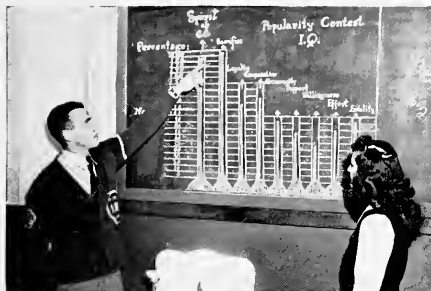

While the ghosts were strolling, we were rolling, for on Hallowe'en night the seniors held their first roller skating party of the season at the usual setting—Ramona Gardens. Ray Scholl and Fran Druskis, co-chairmen of the affair, with the assistance of Jay Grady, Bob Kubiak, Harriet Dennis, and Mary Reynolds, not only stirred up a good time for all the boys and girls present but also increased the size of the numbers in the seniors' "bank book." After a terrific time of falls and floor burns, the gallant "amateurs" limped happily homeward.

GALA

Popularity Contest winners: Ray Przybysz and Adele Alkasses.

NITE

Throngs of students, alumni, future students of Catholic Central, and the faculty celebrated Gala Nite on November 16, 1945 in the school gymnasium. Again appointed as general chairman and organizer, Sister Gervase chose Bernard Deschaine as Student Chairman and as his assistants, Lillian Toczyłowski and Mary Ann Cebelak.

The popularity contest started off like fire works on the Fourth of July. After a close and hot race between the participants, Ray Przybysz '46 and Adele Alkasses '47 were announced as the winners.

Eye-catching booths drew the crowds like magnets. The new feature booth this year was the "Dog House" where "pups" real and stuffed were raffled off. The highlight of this booth was the auctioning of "Cougar", a little black cocker, by Reverend Father Robert Heyer. At the fish pond, luck was exceptionally good for the "fishermen" and the Candy booth was as sweet as ever if not sweeter. Crowds surrounded the Religious Articles booth and everyone quenched his thirst at the Soft Drink booth. The "House of Magic" supplied amusement to eager audiences and chances on the watches and doll brought in big profits. At the "Jail" the judge managed to think up enough accusations so that the "Courtroom" treasury (cigar box) was filled to the brim.

Thanks to the hard-working Sisters, to the full cooperation of the student body, and to the voluntary workers, fun for all and great success was the result. A $3500 profit was netted, the highest amount ever attained in the history of Gala Nite.

Officers Boruta and Ogg finally catch up with "Humphrey" Duba.

"Gypsy" Rosie Yost tells Dolores Kelly's fortune.

Father Heyer talks fast to "Judge" Drangelis.

SENIOR PARTY

A wind storm virtually blew the members of the senior class to their terrific "Seniors Only" party held at St. Adalbert's Auditorium on November 21. Father R. Heyer arranged a perfectly scrumptious evening with the able assistance of Joseph Ogg and Leone Dutkiewicz as master and mistress of ceremonies. Dorothy Bladey acted as head of the entertainment which was the spark that set off a hilarious evening. The senior girls presented a reasonable facsimile of Spike Jones' band struggling through "Chloe," followed by a three act soap opera "How the Story Grew" with singing commercial as an added attraction.

Not to be outdone in laughs and originality, the boys strolled lusciously across the stage in a beauty contest of movie stars.

The seniors extended their sincere gratitude to Reverend Father J. Maksymowski, their gracious host, who generously donated his parish auditorium for their use.

SNO SHUFFLE

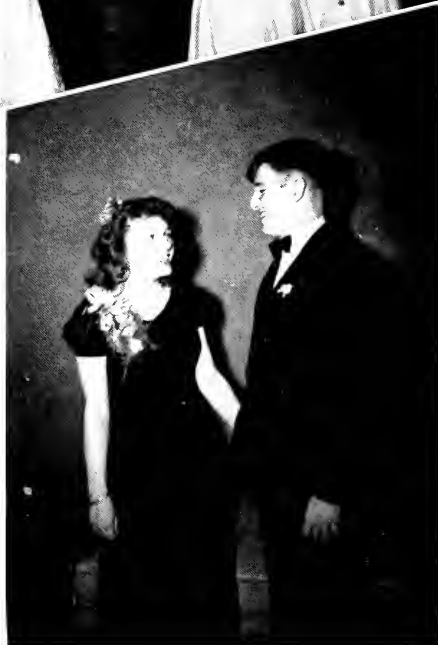

Place: The Black and Silver Room
Time: 8:30 - 11:30
Scene: I—A whirl of frills and tails takes over the Civic's ballroom.

On the night of February 23 the mirrored walls of the Civic reflected a merry-go-round of color whirling 'round and 'round the ballroom. The Shufflers, in tails and elbow-length gloves, which lent an atmosphere of formality to the affair, followed the tempo set by Ray Bush and Company.

Joseph Ogg and Roberta O'Keefe, co-chairmen of the dance, introduced the entertainment which consisted of the vocal abilities of Arlene Adamzak and Dorothy Bladey, followed by Tom Jones on the keys.

Numerous spreads and parties preceded the dance, making it a long and eventful evening never to be forgotten.

Co-chairmen Bobbie O'Keefe and Joe Ogg pose for the cameraman.

PEP MEETING

Many and varied were the demonstrations of Cougar might displayed at the pep meetings on Friday afternoons preceding the football games.

Before the defeat of the Creston Eleven, the Juniors foretold the event by holding the Polar Bears' funeral complete with preacher (Rowlson) and sorrowful (?) mourners.

A war council preceding the Ottawa-Catholic game in which the Ottawa Indians, led by Chief Lyle Morrison, planned their attack on the Cougars, was permanently broken up by way of Casey Polkowski's machine gun smuggled passed the braves in a violin case.

And before the epic of the South-Catholic game was written, Miss Winna Victory was joined to Mr. Claws Cougar in the holy bands of wedlock, never to be parted.

The most terrific meeting of all was the one held the Monday morning following the South victory and the consequent seizure of the city championship. After talks by the star players, Father Murphy ended the meeting by declaring a free day.

CLASS WILL

We, the graduating class of Catholic Central in the year of Our Lord nineteen hundred and forty-six, being of sound mind (?) and body and confident of our imminent success, do hereby bequeath our numerous attributes and glorious possessions which have carried us to such brilliant heights, to the underclassmen and faculty.

Article I: So that we shall never be forgotten and that we may serve as an inspiration to all the underclassmen, we leave a picture of each of us that adorn the walls of good old C. C. for years to come.

Article II: To the ever-patient faculty we give our heartfelt sympathy in their loss of two hundred and ninety-eight perfect pupils. Like-wise we extend to them our deepest regrets that such ingenious students can never be replaced.

Article III: To next year's football team we leave the city football championship which they had better retain. Also we leave four "All-City" positions and three "All-State" positions for them to refill. To them and to the additional sports prospects we leave a prayer for their success.

Article IV: To all the underclassmen we leave our good sportsmanship, our ability to study hard, and our ability to find a laugh in everything.

Article V: To our immediate heirs, the Juniors, we leave our well-used textbooks, our honorable desks, our ability to carry through successfully all senior activities, and a very, very large pair of shoes to fill.

Whereby, having completed our will, we hereby affix our signatures to this document with the hope that it will be accepted with great eagerness and gratitude.

CITY CHAMPIONS

City Champions! These two words symbolized the type of aggressive football which our Sheldon Ave. Aggregation displayed on the gridiron. It not only meant laurels for the players but also to the school it represented a season's work, backing the Cougars to the very last.

Taking it on the chin for two consecutive weeks at Muskegon, when the Big Reds started with a 13-7 verdict and the Heights' Tigers wound it up with a 21 to 13 tally, Catholic bounced back with renewed force to make a clean sweep of the G. R. teams and proceed to cop the city title.

It did not take the fans long to realize that the Cougars were out for blood after witnessing a literal massacre of Creston's Polar Bears to the wild and woolly score of 34 to 7. The Sowie-men would still be scoring T.D.'s if there had not been a final gun.

Ottawa's surprise victory over a powerful 1944 Catholic eleven was avenged, and then some, as C. C. took over with a 33 to 0 shutout, that the "East-enders" will never forget.

The following week the "Blue aggregation" continued its winning way by submerging their cousins from Fountain St. under a 20-0 deluge. There was no doubt as to who was the better team that night as Central was completely outplayed from start to finish.

Union's weaker eleven did not know what hit them when Catholic's "Mighty Men" waded into them at Houseman field and threw "Dynamite" all over the place. Before the Hawks could recover from one tally the Cougars would chalk up another. It went on like that until the final gun sounded ending the game with the West-Siders on the short end of a 40-14 verdict.

One night that G.R. football fans will not forget for a long time is that of November 3. It was on this night that the Pigskin Parade wound up a great season—with Catholic Central being crowned City Champs! They showed some 17,000 spectators, that jammed every square inch of Houseman field, how the game of football is played, by humbling in bitter defeat a less powerful aggregation from Hall St.—The South High Trojans. "That night C.C. could have whipped any team in the state." It was fought from 7:45 until the closing whistle, as the South-Enders were pushed around at will until it was time to "throw in the towel."

Thus did a great football team stake their claim to a very well deserved city title.

TED SOWLE

One of the biggest reasons for the Cougar's success this year is one Mr. Theodore Sowle! Under the inspiring guidance of this able mentor, our gridiron greats were given the wherewithal to play winning football.

Mr. Sowle has been at the "Twin C" now for three years. In this time he has built up a record that any coach would like to have. In 1943 he gave Catholic its first State Championship in several years. 1944 was a fundamental year for Mr. Sowle's boys, winding up in a tie for third place. Then 1945 rolled around. Again "Ted" proved his worth by bringing the Sheldon Ave. aggregation up in front of all others and copping his second city title.

You can be sure that Mr. Sowle earned these honors, too. Never in my high school years has your writer seen any coach work so hard and diligently for his team. All his spare time was occupied in "doing for the boys."

With the return of Mr. Edward Killoran, "Ted" left us. He has been given an opportunity to coach a high school football team in Eire, Pennsylvania. We know he will do just as good work there as he did here, but still this scribe would like to say, "Good luck, Ted, and the best of everything to you. May God bless you, in behalf of the student body here at Catholic."

To Mr. Killoran we extend our heartfelt greetings and feel certain he will keep C.C. up at the "top of the Sports' ladder" always.

Coach Ted Sowle

ALL-STATE

Champion teams have champion players but with the Cougars we find three men that are outstanding in their jobs. This was proved when Sports Scribes from all over the State awarded coveted All-State honors to Jerry (Mac) McGovern '46, Casimir (Casey) Polkowski '46, and Edward James (E. J.) Owens '47.

The pigskin experts from the Detroit Free Press scanned the State's schools and elected Jerry McGovern as the best right tackle for 1945. Casey Polkowski's ability was soon recognized and he became the Associated Press' selection for No. 1 right end. His aggressiveness on defense was outstanding throughout the season.

Catholic's "Red" Grange, Jr., the "Gallop-in' Ghost" from the "Twin C", or in other words, E. J. Owens, was spotted by the Detroit Times' experts and was chosen Michigan's "Mr. Big" of all right halves from a field of many backs. This "fleet-footed, flashy flame" well deserves his award.

JUNIOR CHAMPS

First row—left to right: Louie DeVrent, Larry Stoffer, Tony Rubleski, Tom Bieszka, Earl Wood, Tony Hodyna, Joseph Nawara, George Kawa, Dick Pins, Lee Chulski.
Second row: Coach Casimir Pobojewski, John Olewinski, John Schutich, Richard Kline, Frank Woronka, Gene Zimmer, Tony Long, Edward Bockheim, Louis Drieborg, Dominic Bulgarella, Coach Ted Sowle.

Third row: Russ Kassouf, Bernard Karas, James Kaminski, William Jacobitz, Don McKeever, Dave Kastens, Harry Choals, Tom O'Keefe, Dick Drenten.

Fourth row: Tom Schulte, Richard Powers, James Kowalczyk, Fred Long, Philip Catalano, James Andres, Fred Vanderlaan, Vito Licari.

The little Cougars of Catholic Central followed in the footsteps of their big brothers by winning the second team championship. The cubs with their giant line led by Tom Bissot, Frank Reilly and Leon Chulski tore the opposing lines to bits. The fast shifting backfield consisting of Shutich, De Vrent, and Stoffer, succeeded in romping consistently into touchdown land.

The season started out with the peanut squad thoroughly demolishing a much inexperienced and green Polar Bear eleven at Briggs Field 40-0.

The hardest game of the season came when the champion-bound Cougars met the Hilltoppers from Central at Houseman Field and succeeded in eking out a slim 6-0 victory.

The Ottawa game was another toughie for the Sheldon Avenue boys winning 28-14. The cubs started out fast and led at the half 21-0. The second half was an entirely different story with Catholic giving way to the Indians for 2 touchdowns while scoring one.

The "Twin C" boys suffered a tough set back when Frank "Red" Reilly, rugged sophomore center was placed on the casualty list. This boy had led the forward wall all year and had been the line's "big gun."

The cubs, however, despite their loss continued their winning ways with Dick Pins filling in the gap.

COUGARS ON THE COURTS

Although Catholic Central's Cougars didn't claw their way to the top rung in city Basketball contests, as they so grandly did on the gridiron, they provided heated competition for the opposition.

With E. J. Killoran back after three years in the service of the Navy, Catholic had one of the best quint instructors in the city.

Draugelis, Boggiano, Polkowski, Duba and Tietema were starters in most of the games. Win or lose, these boys never let go the reigns of courage, but ever tried to promote the spirit of Catholic's heroes of the past.

Upon arriving at the State Capitol for their initial contest, the Sheldon Avenue boys found that the Lansing Sexton aggregation had written "defeat" all over the welcome mat. The Boys in Blue came home with their heads "bowed."

Catholic came to the foreground by a victory at the expense of the Christian quintet with the amazing score of 48 to 24. At this game, Catholic's first league encounter, Boggiano paced the "Boys in Blue" with 12 tallies, but Draugelis and Stoddard were not far behind.

The Union Redhawks' scoring apparatus was completely stalled when the Cougars shoved their machine in high gear and steamrolled over the defending champs by the score of 38 to 15.

Members of the Redhawk quintet were so completely stunned that a field goal was not flipped through the white meshes until six minutes after intermission.

The South High Trojans were on the rampage as they walked over the highly-rated Catholic quint 36 to 28. This was the initial defeat of the title-aspirant Cougars.

The game was a knockdown-drag-out, rugged fray from start to finish, as the keyed-up Patterson-coached boys kept up their terrific pace, until the final buzz.

There was a close contest as the scrappy cagers from Catholic whirled their basketball talents out, and pulled the game out of the unsuspecting hands of the Creston Polar Bears, to the tune of 28 to 26. It was Jim Command of the Bears that kept his team in the game and Ed Draugelis, our lean, long, lanky center, who paced Catholic at the foul line.

South High's Trojans were just too much for our fighting Cougars as they emerged on the long end of a 35 to 28 score. Catholic was outscored in all but the second canto when Draugelis and Duba hit the loop for seven points.

Although they were not the victors, the Sheldon Avenue boys deserve much credit for the clean hard-fought battle. Eugene Duba and Holwerda of South shared the scoring honors with eight tallies apiece.

The Creston Polar Bears edged out the Catholic Central Cougars in the Parochial's Gym as the scoreboard showed 38 to 36.

The Ottawa Indians showed proof of their worth as they downed the Catholic Cagers 46 to 36 at the East Enders' Gym. Even though Catholic was constantly losing, they still showed their Cougar teeth and spirit.

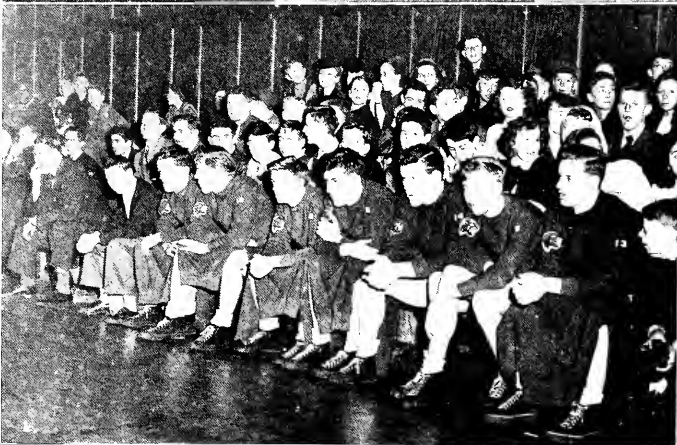

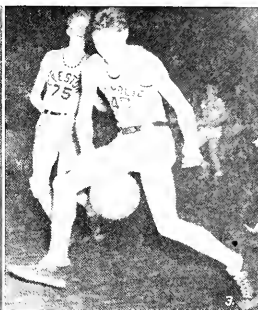

Coach Claus Beukema was presented a victory at the Burton Gym when the Christian Eagles outpointed the "Boys in Blue" 31 to 23. The Eagles were supposedly underdogs but their spirit brought about the final outcome.

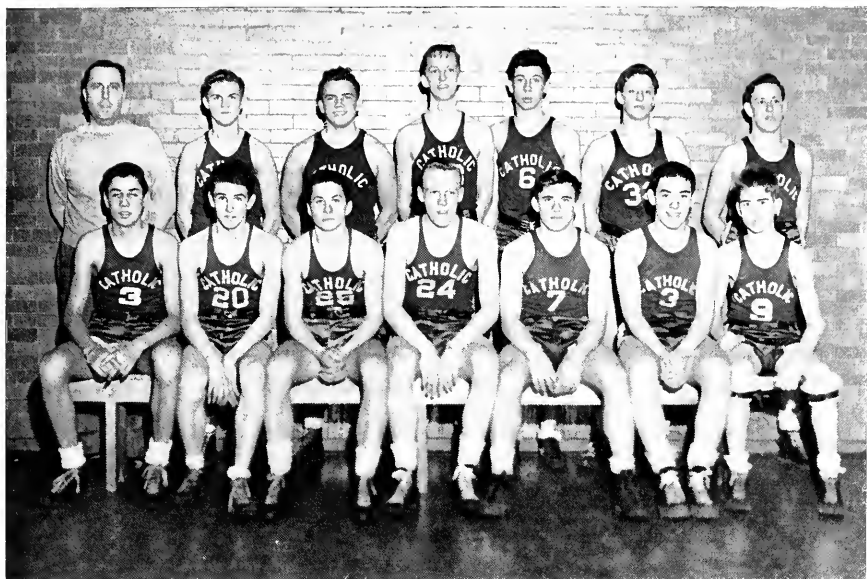

It was Union's turn the night of February 5 as they whipped the "Twin C" aggregation 43 to 26 at the Parochials' Gym. This was a recompense deal as they had been shown the depths of defeat by the Cougars earlier in the cage season.

The Catholic Central baseball forces hit the diamonds and basepaths with a mighty display of talent that beckoned the willing and capable hands of Coach Jack Young, who moulded the 1946 edition of Cougars into a forcible, efficient, strong, dreaded, baseball aggregation.

The diamond-minded Cougars who were runner-up's in the City League race last year, are at their strongest 'through the middle' as they have a highly talented back-stopper in the person of veteran catcher Ray Przybysz and his battery mates were Tony Markarewicz, Lyle Morrison and Roman Boruta who formed a winning combination all spring. These boys sent more than one despondent fellow back to the bench after he had seen three 'whizz' by.

Bolstered by Bob Sullivan who has one of the best 'wings' on the ball field, and Chuck Boggiano, the infield, did their part in making the 'twin C.' team what it was.

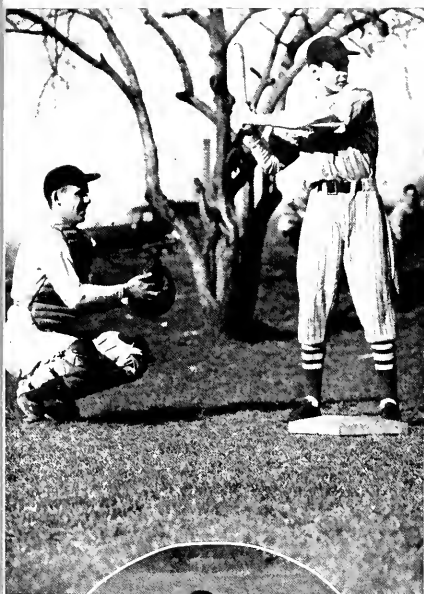

The outfield was clustered with sluggers that slapped that 'pellet' over all the local fences. Ed Olman was one of these boys that hit the horsehide until it rung, his mates were Dick Agacinski and Jim Schultz.

TRACK

Coach E. J. Killoran once again took over the track coaching post which he vacated four years ago. Ted Sowle capably filled the position during his absence.

Coach Killoran was blessed with an array of veteran thinclads, plus many willing underclassmen who made up in zest and spirit what they may have lacked in experience or sheer native ability. Under his expert tutelage the hopeful thinclads were rapidly whipped into a formidable track team.

For the first time in city history, dual meets were held under the lights at Houseman Field, although the field events were staged in the afternoon.

Outstanding in these meets were E. J. Owens and Danny Pobjewski in the dashes, Dick Gibson in the 440, Ed Draugelis, holder of the school record for the half mile, in the 880, and Eugene Duba in the mile. Dick Lang and Dick DeGraff handled the hurdles successfully.

Casey Polkowski, veteran shotputter and pole vaulter, was the standout in the field events. Such men as James Crowley, pole vaulter; Gerry Houseman and Don Miller, sprinters; Dick Bichler, quarter miler; John Loftus, half miler; and Jerry Jeleniewski, miler; rounded out the Track Team of '46.

Dear Tom,

I won't be able to express my real feelings for you in such an open place, but here goes.

Ever since October I've been having a wonderful time with you. More fun than I have ever had in my whole life. Remember the first time we met? At Shirley's Halloween party? I guess I won't ever forget it. That game called "Winham" was certainly good for a few laughs.

Every dance we've ever gone to, together has really been something for me to remember. Didn't we have just loads of fun New Years Eve?

I kinda wish we weren't graduating this year. It seems as if my school life was just beginning to be fun. Such a life.

Maybe I better sign off.

Congratulations, and may your future be filled with all the best that God can give to anyone.
(You make a very handsome lieutenant.)

Love always,

Tom,

Tom -

Tom,

It's been really nice knowing you and I hope our friendship does not end with the school year. Hoping to see you in the future and wishing you loads of luck.

It's been fine knowing you and I wish you all the luck in the future, sometime when you have nothing else to do. Remember me all the notes I delivered to you both this year and last year? Hope you have all kinds of success in the future.

Always,
Barb Pogreza

Best of luck in future years.
